

LETTERS FROM TWO STATES

New London County

GALES FERRY

Local Guests at Unusually Wedding—
Pastor Returns From Vacation—
Mrs. Thomas Allen's Funeral.

At the marriage of Miss Iva F. Bartlett, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bartlett, of Unusually, and Rufus Hurlbutt of this place, at the home of the bride's parents, last Saturday evening, Rev. James M. Potter of the Gales Ferry M. E. church, was the officiating clergyman. Miss Jennie L. Perkins, cousin of the groom, played the wedding march. Guests from this place were the mother of the groom, Mrs. Henry Hurlbutt, and his brother, Winthrop Hurlbutt, with the groom's uncle, Dudley C. Perkins, and his aunt, Miss Laura A. Perkins. After the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Hurlbutt came to their new home at the Alexander place in the village. Mr. Hurlbutt is the mail-carrier of the R. F. D. route from the Gales Ferry post office having been employed by the U. S. government upwards of ten years.

Pastor's Vacation Ends.

Rev. James M. Potter returned from his vacation spent in Portland, and West Baldwin, Maine, last Thursday, and conducted service in the M. E. church Sunday morning, taking his theme from Luke 17, chapter 1, verse, The Great Offense. At the offertory Miss Grace A. Chapman sang, I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say. The Epworth League service at 7 o'clock was led by Mrs. Harmon L. Perkins, with the theme, The Phoenix of the Great Promise to Youth. The meeting was interesting. Recitations by Mary and Madeline Birch. Readings by "Marie" and "Gertie" and "Alice" given. A trio, Mrs. Dudley C. Perkins, Miss Latimer and Miss Satterlee sang, Jesus Loves Me.

Funeral of Mrs. Allen.

The funeral services of Mrs. Eunice Allen, widow of Thomas Allen, was held in the M. E. church here at two o'clock, Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Allen died in Norwich on Saturday, November sixth. Burial was in the village cemetery. Mrs. Allen was twice married, her first husband being John Bell, who served in the Civil war.

Temperance Address.

Wednesday evening Rev. W. E. Lamphere of Hartford, field secretary of the Connecticut temperance union, gave an address in line with the great non-partisan movement for a saloonless nation, speaking in the vestry of the M. E. church at 7:30 o'clock.

At Norwich Concert.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley C. Perkins, Miss Jennie L. Perkins, Miss Alice Satterlee, D. C. Povey of this village and E. Colver, Miss Kate B. Colver of the Navy Yard, with Miss Grace A. Chapman and Mrs. Norman of Albany, attended the New York Artists' concert in the Y. M. C. A. course in Norwich last Friday evening.

Miss William H. Brown of Hartford spent several days last week with her sister, Mrs. Caro Manire.

Mrs. Mary Taylor and Mrs. Charles Chittenden of New London were Friday callers at Red Fern cottage of Mrs. Franklin H. Brown.

Mrs. Edwin Keeney of New London visited relatives in the village Saturday.

Mrs. E. V. Mann of Providence arrived at the home of her sister, Mrs. Franklin H. Brown last Saturday.

A large flock of wild geese passed over the village last Sunday.

Mrs. Curtis Gates and little daughter, Marjorie, of New London, were guests of relatives in this place last week.

The supper given by the Ladies' Aid society last Wednesday evening in the vestry of the M. E. church was well attended. In the afternoon two quilts were tied at the regular meeting which preceded the supper.

LEONARD BRIDGE

Leo G. Cummings, a teacher at Stratford, spent Saturday with his mother, Mrs. Ida Cummings.

Miss Hattie Hendrick of Waterbury is visiting at Henry J. Williams'.

Homer Harrington of Willimantic was a local caller Saturday.

Judge and Mrs. Albert G. Kneeland motored to Hartford Wednesday and Mr. Kneeland attended the meeting of probate judges, held at the capitol.

Willa in Hartford they were the guests of their sons, William A. and Warren W. Kneeland, returning home Thursday.

Miss Lavinia P. Kneeland returned

Saturday from a visit with relatives at Jones street, Hebron; and in East Hampton.

Rexford E. Cummings was in Baltimore Monday.

Postmaster Charles C. Carpenter has been out of town visiting friends. David Walsh was in Amston, Thursday.

A surprise party was given Leroy Geer Friday evening by a large number of young people from Exeter, Lebanon and North Franklin. The evening was merrily spent in playing games. Refreshments were served.

GLASGO

Children's Party at Parsonage—Ladies' Aid Society to Meet Wednesday.

Mrs. Thompson entertained several children at the parsonage Saturday afternoon. Music, singing and games made the time pass quickly. Mrs. Samuel Shaw, Mabel Burdick and Hilma Gustafson assisted Mrs. Thompson in serving refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer of Willimantic, and Mr. and Mrs. Murray of Hartford, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Young.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Luther and their son, Clarence, and Elmer Burdick took an automobile trip to Storrs Sunday.

Mrs. Martha Brown who has been spending two weeks with Mrs. Sterry Kinney returned to her home in Jewett City Friday.

Mrs. Sarah Gulliver a former resident of this town is spending a little time at her granddaughters, Mrs. Shaw's.

To Meet Next Wednesday. The ladies' aid society will meet at the home of Mrs. R. H. Young next Wednesday as the following week in Thanksgiving.

Many at Sunday School. Through the efforts of several ladies interested in Sunday school work a large number of children were present at the Sunday school session at 1 p. m. at the Bethel last Sunday.

The leader of the Epworth League next Sunday evening is Mabel Gustafson. Topic, The Promise of Spiritual Certainty, John 7-17-2 line 2-12.

OLD MYSTIC

Dr. Wyette Simpson of Arkansas and Miss Daisy May Hanks Married—B. Y. P. U. Business Meeting and Supper.

Miss Daisy May Hanks, daughter of William H. Hanks of Old Mystic and Dr. Wyette Simpson of Hot Springs of Arkansas were married on Thursday, Nov. 11, at three p. m. in the town clerk's office. A number of chrysanthemums. Dr. and Mrs. Simpson motored to the Hanks' home at Old Mystic where a pleasant surprise awaited them. A number of the bride's intimate friends were at the home awaiting their return and after giving them an informal reception a collation was served. At 7 p. m. the bride and groom left on a honeymoon trip to New York city, going thence to Hot Springs, Arkansas, where they will reside. Dr. Simpson has been a physician at that place for the past twelve years.

Business and Pleasure. The Baptist Young People's union held its business meeting and social Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice B. Caswell. Games and music were enjoyed and refreshments will be served.

The Methodist United Workers met Wednesday afternoon at the parish house. Supper was served at 5 p. m.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Arthur Daboll.

The Alfred Marthens of East Lyme will meet Thursday, Nov. 18th, with Miss Bertha Chesbro at Rocky Hill farm.

Seriously Ill. Amos B. Taylor is seriously ill at his home in Main street. Mr. Taylor is in his 81st year and his illness is due to the infirmities of age.

Mrs. George Swain has returned from a week's visit to her son, William E. Holmes and family.

Mrs. Henry F. Hanks was the guest Thursday night of her sister, Mrs. Benjamin L. Mull in New London.

Mrs. Arthur Parton of New York city is the guest of her father, Amos B. Taylor.

A new silo has just been erected at Nelson Holdridge's farm, long time known as the "Hillside Gravel Place." Motored to Norwich.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Denison and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Denison were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Denison of Norwich, making the trip in Harry Denison's automobile.

Mrs. Ermeria Walbridge is seriously ill at the home of her son William S. Walbridge.

Fell From Wall. Horace O. Williams is slowly recovering from injuries received by a fall Monday afternoon from the wall in the rear of his store building.

Attorney Dana Taylor is the guest of his mother being summoned here by the serious illness of his grandfather, Amos E. Taylor.

Rev. William F. Newton, state collector, was calling a few days since on his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Tinker.

Ira Porter has moved his household goods and family from Ledyard to a tenement in Westerly.

SALEM

New Concrete Bridge Near Ik Marvel Place—Cattle Sold to Norwich Buyers—Variety Supper.

Selectmen Ernest L. Latimer, Henry A. Rogers and Orrie W. Ray met at the town hall last Saturday. The time of the monthly meeting this year will be 9:30 a. m. on the first Saturday of each month.

Bridge Near Ik Marvel Place. A concrete bridge is to be built over the large brook near the Ik Marvel place in the Essex turnpike.

Mrs. Clyde A. Ray and Miss Katherine L. Ray spent Saturday with Mrs. E. S. Bailey in Norwich.

A number from East Haddam, Colchester and Chesterfield attended the dance given by J. F. Rogers in Strickland hall last Friday.

Norwich Men Buy Cattle. Mulford G. Brown sold a fine pair of cattle to Norwich butchers Monday.

John H. Purcell also sold a number of fat cattle to other Norwich parties.

D. A. and D. D. Rogers this week purchased from J. Lawrence Raymond of Lyme, a nice pair of working cattle.

John H. Purcell is building a large shed for storing farm machinery, etc., at his farm known as the Blacker place, on the West road.

Arthur DeCoursey, Mrs. E. J. Standish and Miss Sybil Standish were guests at Crystal Springs farm last Saturday.

Cut Big Melon. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson E. Webster entertained Tuesday evening. A delicious watermelon of extraordinary size, grown by Mr. Webster, was served during the evening.

Mrs. Louise Mitchell and her son, John Mitchell, motored from Hadlyme Sunday and were guests of Mrs. Sherwood Miner.

Mrs. William Howard of Lakes Pond and son, Le Roy Howard, of New London visited Mrs. Helen Malona, last week.

Mrs. Pearl Cornell of Norwich spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Brown.

Mrs. Frank Rogers, John Rathbun, Miss Jennie L. Rogers and Miss Theodora Hurlbutt motored to New London this week.

Mrs. Mitchell and Harold Gates of Lyme are building a large barn for Prof. Hiram Bingham on the farm formerly owned by Howard A. Rix.

Motored to Willimantic. Mr. and Mrs. William P. Darling spent Sunday with relatives in Willimantic making the trip in their car.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Rathbone and daughter, Miss Ceila Rathbone spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Way in Colchester.

Mrs. Henry Park and Miss Clara Park of Colchester were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde A. Ray this week.

Sewing For Bazaar. The Ladies' Aid society met at the parsonage Thursday afternoon. The ladies are preparing for a bazaar to be held during the winter.

There is no preaching service at the Congregational church Sunday. The Y. P. S. C. E. was held at 7:30, led by Mrs. Nathaniel L. Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee and daughter of Greasy Hill, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Beebe Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Beebe are entertaining relatives from Orange.

Teachers' Meeting. Supervisor J. A. Young of Colchester visited the school in this town this week and conducted a teachers' meeting at the Centre school.

The Y. P. S. C. E. served a variety supper in Grange hall Thursday evening.

Walter DeWolf was a recent visitor in East Haddam and Colchester.

Warren Mitchell and Miss Edith Gates are boarding at the home of Sherwood Miner.

ROAD SOCIETY

Fellowship Meeting Held Wednesday at the Road Church

Mrs. Francis Noyes of New York, arrived at Seth W. Williams Monday and returned Wednesday with her mother, Mrs. Lavinia Lincoln, who has been seriously ill for the last five weeks. They were accompanied by Miss Lorraine Johnson, a graduate nurse who has been caring for Mrs. Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Stanton Gates of New York came on to attend the funeral of her uncle, Nathan DeWolf, held at his home, Thursday afternoon.

The fellowship meeting was held on Wednesday and the sermon was given by Rev. Mr. Barnard.

was served in the church parlors. The afternoon discussion was participated in by a number.

Mrs. Wait of New London and Mrs. Morgan of Providence while en route to Westerly Sunday afternoon by automobile were stopped by an accident to their machine at Charles S. Noyes for some time.

Mrs. Clarence A. Williams is visiting in Nashua, N. H.

Mrs. Charles Ellard of North Stonington, spent Sunday at George Wheeler's.

Miss Louise Johnson spent Tuesday at her home in New London.

GARDNER LAKE

Wedding—Guests—Death of Henry Avery.

Misses Roby Boynton and Marian Henry of Montville spent Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Olin F. Boynton at Gardner Lake.

Mrs. Elizabeth Burdick was a caller at the Burdick-Manwaring cottage the past week.

Miss Emma Johnson and George Champlin were callers in East Lyme recently, at the home of Mrs. Ed. Reynolds.

Several from this place attended the Bokoff-Katz wedding on Raymond Hill, Sunday evening.

Donald G. Mitchell spent a few days at his farm here the past week.

Death of Henry Avery. Henry Avery, one of the old residents, died at his home in Flanders, Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Avery lived at the lake since his boyhood, but moved to Flanders, where he bought a place, seven years ago. Mr. Avery had a pleasant personality and made many friends.

Health-giving barley malt is the basis of Narragansett brewery products. Saazer Land hops give the tonic effect and flavor. Its mildness and wholesomeness make it the ideal beverage for temperate people.

The Famous

Narragansett LAGER-ALE PORTER

NORTH FRANKLIN

Social Affairs of the Week—Personal Items.

Miss Blanche Spencer entertained Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ingraham and son Leon.

Mrs. J. D. Simpson is in Norwich for several weeks.

Mrs. Earl Rogers and daughter Barbara were week end guests of William E. Rogers of Norwich.

Miss Rena Race entertained a party of eight at supper Wednesday.

Mrs. F. R. Rockwood, Mrs. A. T. Brown and Mrs. Fred H. Race attended the meeting of Social Circle club No. 1 at Willimantic Wednesday.

Thursday Rev. G. E. Lamphere and Mrs. Lamphere of Pithville and Mr. and Mrs. George Kahn of Franklin.

Guests at Frink Home. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Frink entertained Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Race, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rockwood and family, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Clark, Mrs. Jennette Hoffman, Misses Ella and Florence Hoffman, Rena Race and Herbert Hoffman. Whist and other games were played and there were piano and vocal selections by Miss Florence Hoffman and E. Clark. Refreshments were served by the hosts.

Mrs. Grace Peckham, Mrs. George Kahn, Miss Mabel Tracy and Mrs. William Weaver attended the missionary meeting Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lathrop.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Latham of Bean Hill and Miss Mary Chapman of Pendleton Hill spent Sunday with Mrs. C. H. Peckham.

Miss Lydia Johnson was a Norwich visitor Wednesday.

Mrs. and Mrs. W. E. Canfield and Miss Emily Gard of Norwich spent Monday with Mrs. Hannah Kingsley.

Miss Lucy Palmer of Groton is visiting Mrs. Grace Peckham.

Mrs. J. D. Simpson entertained Sunday Jason Kingsley of Norwich, Mr. and Mrs. George Dutton of Eastford, Mrs. H. Simpson and daughter Theo of Norwich.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert White and daughter Mildred called on relatives in South Franklin Sunday.

Mrs. Nettie Bolande is spending a few days in Danielson.

Mrs. George Miner was a Norwich visitor one day last week.

HAMBURG

Chicago Man Buys Church Stones—Gives Them Toward Town Building.

Mrs. Mary Bill entertained guests from the town at a public luncheon last Tuesday and gives them to the town toward the erection of a town building.

Mrs. B. S. met Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. J. E. Harding and daughter served.

Thanksgiving Dance. Invitations are out for a Thanksgiving dance at the public hall. Cone's orchestra is to furnish the music.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Tiffany of New York spent Sunday in Sterling City.

Taken to Hospital. Eleanor Reynolds, who has been ill for some time, was taken last Tuesday to the Hartford hospital for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gage of Norwich spent the past week with Mrs. Gage's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Hendon.

Reginald Lord was home from Middletown, where he is attending Wesleyan university, and spent Sunday with his parents.

CAMPBELL'S MILLS

Mrs. James Dixon's health continues to improve slowly. She is able to sit up but a little while at a time.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Holmes of Pacheco visited Mrs. Holmes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Tanner, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

James Congdon captured two coons Monday night.

B. F. Wilcox's automobile was badly damaged by fire on the Douglas road Sunday night.

William Clark is doing some carpentering for his brother-in-law, William Billings, near West Ashwillett.

Miss Marion Manchester has returned to her home in Bayonne, N. J., after spending her vacation with her sister, Mrs. Everett Chapman.

Miss Alice Chapel spent Sunday in Bozrah.

Miss Helen Gardner of Yantic has been visiting in town.

Miss Lydia and Gertude Olson visited Norwich Saturday.

Rev. Mr. Luddington of Waterford preached in the Union Baptist church Sunday morning.

Miss Marion Henry spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Olin Boynton, of Gardner Lake.

Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Larkin of

LEBANON

Social Affairs of the Week—New Operator at Telephone Exchange—Whist Club Meets.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Bannister are visiting relatives in Waterbury.

Fred W. Hoxie has purchased a new six cylinder car.

Miss Gladys Clarke of Liberty Hill spent a few days this week with friends in town.

Fred W. Hoxie unloaded two carloads of Vermont cattle this week.

Doris Briggs spent the week end as the guest of C. S. Briggs and family.

Charles and Elmer Geer were in Pithville Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Everett Stark.

Mrs. Agnes Hyde returned to her home at Willimantic Monday after a few days' visit at Mrs. Julia Geer's.

Surprise Party. Leroy Geer was given a pleasant surprise last Friday evening when thirty young people from Liberty Hill, Franklin, Yantic and Lebanon were present.

Games were played, after which refreshments were served.

The Ladies' Aid society met in the Congregational church parlors Thursday for an all-day meeting. A basket lunch was served at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cobb returned to Mrs. Adell Spaulding's Thursday after a few weeks' visit in Hartford.

Miss Kate Danielson of Danielson is visiting her brother and his wife, Dr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Danielson.

Mrs. H. M. Peck, Mrs. C. M. Geer, Mrs. E. A. Hoxie and Miss Vera Hoxie called on friends at Liberty Hill Tuesday afternoon.

Mission Circle Meets. The Baptist Missionary circle met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Phoebe Irish.

Attended D. A. R. Meeting. Mrs. L. P. Smith was in Norwich Tuesday attending the D. A. R. meeting.

Mrs. C. M. Geer is spending the week end with her sister, Miss Ella Peck, and Miss Ruth Carpenter at Hartford.

Mrs. Everett Hewitt was in Norwich Tuesday.

Charles Nye, who has been engaged to work for A. C. Williams, has moved into Henry J. Williams' tenement house on Town street.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin entertained recently Mr. and Mrs. Chester Manning and Harold Manning, also Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Cheney of South Manchester.

Evening of Whist. The Lebanon Whist club met last Friday evening in Lebanon grange hall.

Road Repairs. A number of men under the supervision of Frank Lindmore Olcott are repairing the state roads in town.

Double Surprise Visit. A party of sixty friends from Liberty Hill, North Franklin, Pithville, Yantic, Bozrah street, Willimantic and Lebanon met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Browning Wednesday evening as a surprise to Mr. Browning.

Mrs. Ruth Patton, dancing was enjoyed during the evening, music being furnished by Mrs. Fred Burgess, Frederick Manning, Miss Ruth Patton, also Miss Ethel Way at the piano, accompanied by Frank Way on the harmonica. Prof. Congdon from Bozrah street prompted. Games were also played. Sandwiches, cake, nabiscoes and punch were served during the evening.

New Operator at Exchange. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Troiland and daughter, Miss Doris, are moving to the Southern New England Telephone company building in town, where Mrs. Troiland takes charge of the office work Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Lovine and family, who have been at the telephone office, are moving to Naugatuck.

George Chappell and son Everett were in New Hartford recently.

Mrs. C. W. Grant of North Franklin spent a few days recently with Mrs. George Chappell.

NIANTIC. A concrete sidewalk is being built for Mrs. A. E. Spencer.

Mrs. J. W. Crowley has been entertaining her daughter from New Haven.

Mrs. E. E. Clausen of Hartford, a summer resident of the Grove, was here for a few days last recently.

Conductor and Mrs. Winfield J. Manwaring of New Haven, spent Monday at their cottage in the Pines.

Arthur Fallows has gone to Great Barrington, Mass., where he is employed.

A new furnace and a wood heater

OAKDALE

At the Congregational church Sunday the pastor, Rev. C. L. French, preached from Matt. 6:33.

Daniel Louis Browning of Norwich attended church at Montville Center Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Augwood and daughter, Miss Agnes Augwood, were week end guests of Mrs. and Mrs. Ambrose Sullivan of Trading Cove.

Mrs. Fred Brooks and little granddaughter Jennie returned Monday afternoon from a two days' visit with friends in Jewett City.

William Schmauk of the P. Schwartz Co., of New London, was a caller in this place Tuesday.

Windham County EAST WOODSTOCK. Miss White Taken Ill at Roanoke College—California-Tourists Leave.

Miss Miriam Dixby of Webster recently spent a few days with Mrs. Emma Dixby, who entertained the following Saturday evening in honor of her guest: Mrs. Turner, Mrs. Rose, Mrs. J. S. May and Mrs. E. E. May.

Undergoes Operation. Mrs. N. T. White was called to Roanoke, Va., Tuesday, owing to the illness of her daughter, Agnes, who was operated on for appendicitis.

Miss White was attending Marion college 100 miles from Roanoke, before her illness.

A mid-winter meeting was held Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Gifford, the attendance being 30. The topic was Home Missions in Action and Education.